Description

BACK IN LINE - Wearing a robe and carrying new signs, the Reverend Sidney Lansing rejoins a White House picket line today after being chased in the morning by police. Lansing who described himself as a preacher and prophet from Franklin, NJ, was removed from the picket line when a passerby grabbed and ripped his big sign which featured the words: "President Kennedy is a traitor." In the background are members of the American Nazi Party. Vintage press print documenting the Civil Rights and Anti-War movements in Washington, D.C.
